

More local access to the radio airwaves is needed. More and more information is packaged by commercial radio with little to no local news on the radio. With low powered radio we can build better communities!